

Week 4 Ready and Willing

Read all of Titus 3 for an overview of the passage.

Context

Our last section focused on living a God centered life in accordance with sound doctrine. This prepares us for the last chapter, where this type of dedication to sound doctrine has us ready for good works.

Remember who you were

Reread Titus 3:1-7 considering the purpose we avoid quarreling and disobedience.

- Why are we called to walk in obedience to rulers and authorities?
- What good works do you see God preparing for you?
- What should be our motivation for avoiding fights and arguments?
- Describe how Jesus work on the cross has changed you?
- How does remembering who you were before Christ effect your actions today?
- Read verses 4-7: What attributes of God can you take from these passages?
- How does seeing yourself as an heir to eternal life change the way you see yourself?

Grace that brings obedience to the Word

Reread Titus 3-8-15 while thinking about the good works God may have for you.

- Define in your own words the term "good works:."
- What do you see as distractions to the works God has called you to?
- Are there any things or people you need to avoid to get this work done?
- How have you devoted yourself to good works?
- What have you devoted yourself to if not good works?
- What are you going to do today to realign your life toward good works?
